

Introduction, Acknowledgement & Notices

Welcome to Main Street Children's Center. The purpose of the parent handbook is to inform you of important information about your enrollment with the Center. We have tried to make the handbook easy to read and understand and agree with the policies of Main Street Children's Center. The handbook can be found at <https://msbchurch.com/mscc>. A copy of the handbook is available from the church office by request. The handbook is not a contract and we may make changes at any time. You will be notified when any changes are made.

Please detach this portion and return to MSCC office within 5 days of receipt.

I acknowledge that I have reviewed the Main Street Children's Center parent handbook and that I am responsible for understanding and complying with the procedures, guidelines and requirements contained in the handbook. I also understand that Main Street Children's Center reserves the right to modify, supplement, rescind or revise any provision, benefit or policy from time to time. I will be notified when any changes occur to this handbook.
